

MI VOTER REGISTRATION

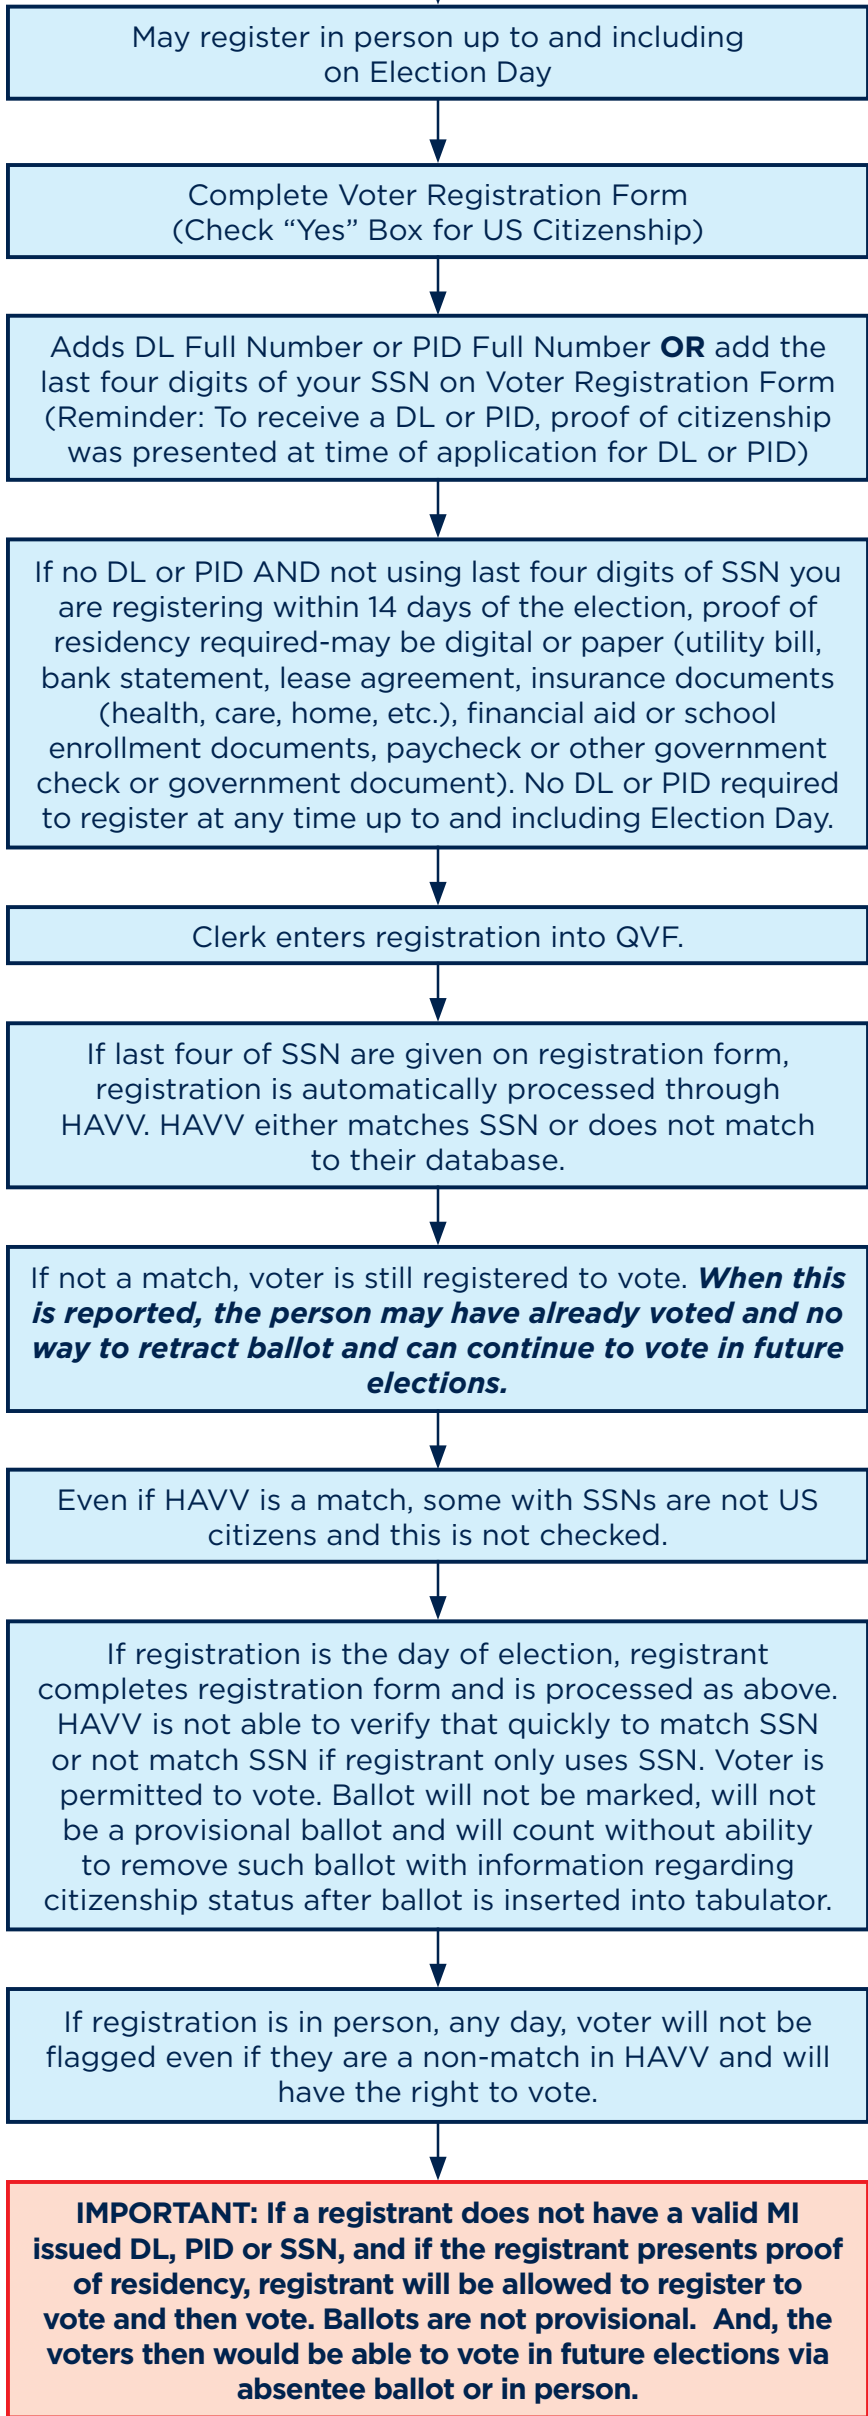

LOCATIONS TO REGISTER TO VOTE

Secretary of State Branch Offices, Local Clerks, Mail-In, Online, Voter Registration Drives, State of Michigan Department of Health and Human Services Offices (All which accept Medicaid Applications), Michigan Department of Corrections (MDOC)

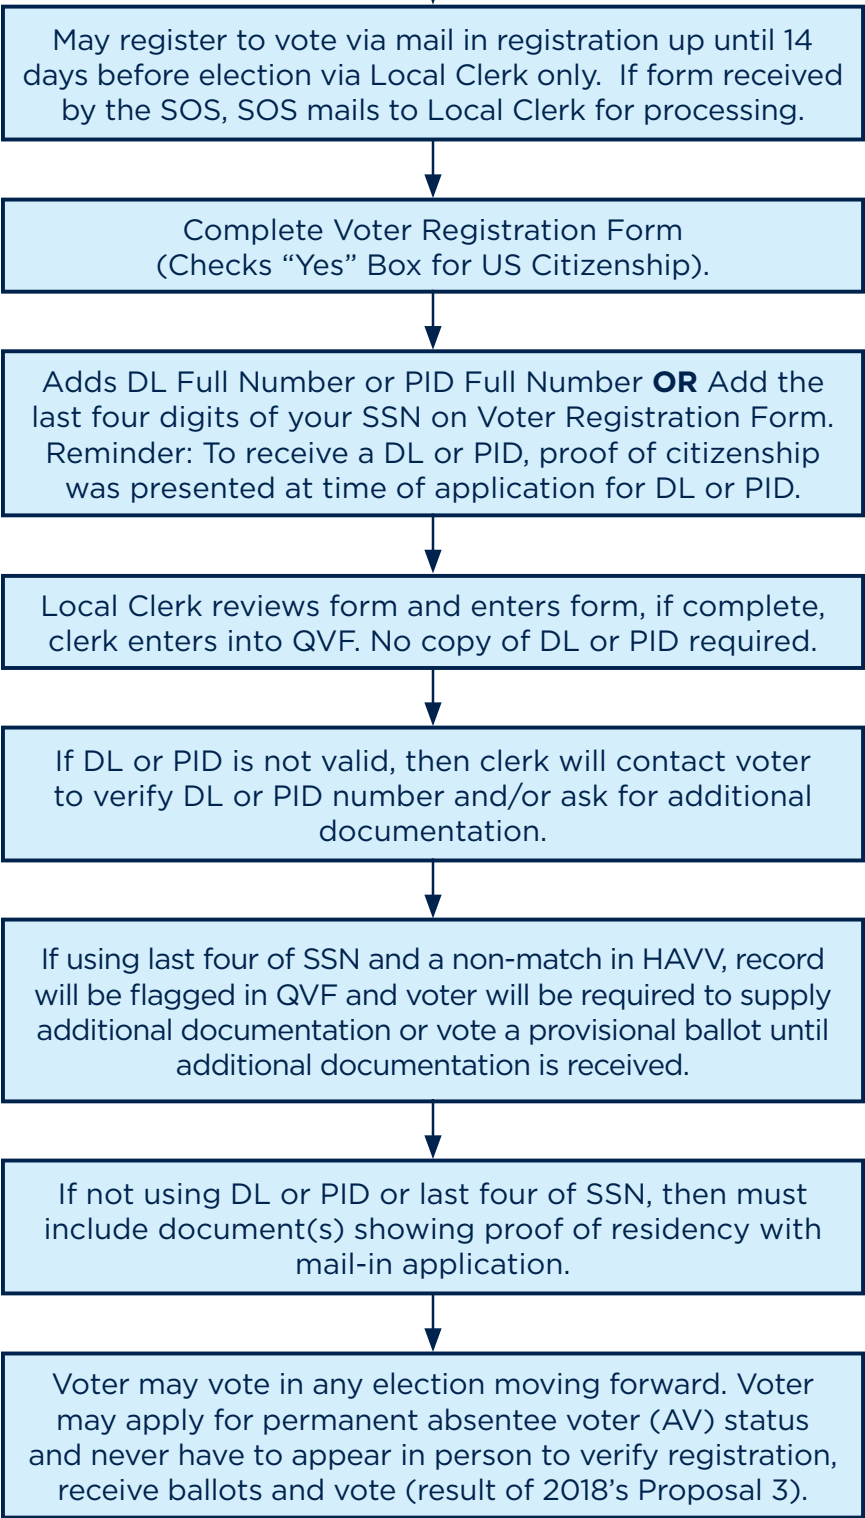

In person registration permits individuals to satisfy the requirement to be a US citizen by checking “yes” next to the statement, “I am a United States citizen”. Individuals are also permitted to register to vote in person without a DL, PID or SSN up to and on Election Day. Ballots will be issued, as long as the applicant provides proof of residency (utility bill, bank statement, lease agreement, etc.). The voter may also be added to the permanent absentee ballot list and receive AV ballots for all future elections. Online registration requires a DL or PID.
